Getting to Springfield University Hospital by Tube

Getting to Springfield University Hospital by National Rail

The nearest National Rail station is Balham. Southern trains run regularly from Victoria station on the Victoria, District and Circle lines. From Balham, Springfield University Hospital is about a 25-minute walk. Alternatively, travellers can transfer to the London Underground at Balham, take the tube one stop south to Tooting Bec, and walk or take a taxi to the hospital from there. There are also buses that run from Stop C at Balham National Rail station up towards Tooting Bec. The bus will take about 15 minutes.

Getting to Springfield University Hospital by car

From Tooting High Road, turn on to Trinity Road (A214). Follow Trinity Road and take the first left onto Glenburnie Road. The hospital entrance is located at the end of this road.

Parking at Springfield Hospital:

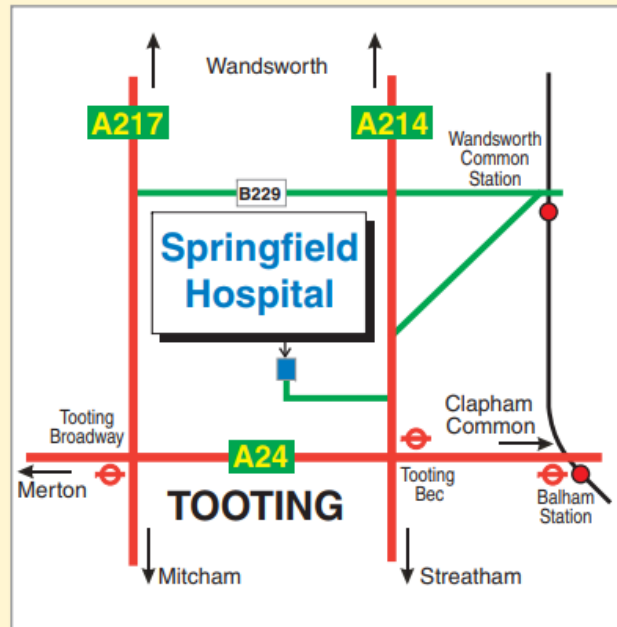

If you are travelling by car at peak times there may be traffic congestion and you will need to find, and pay for, a parking space. Please note that recent changes to the car parking facilities means a parking space cannot be guaranteed.

Parking costs are as follows:

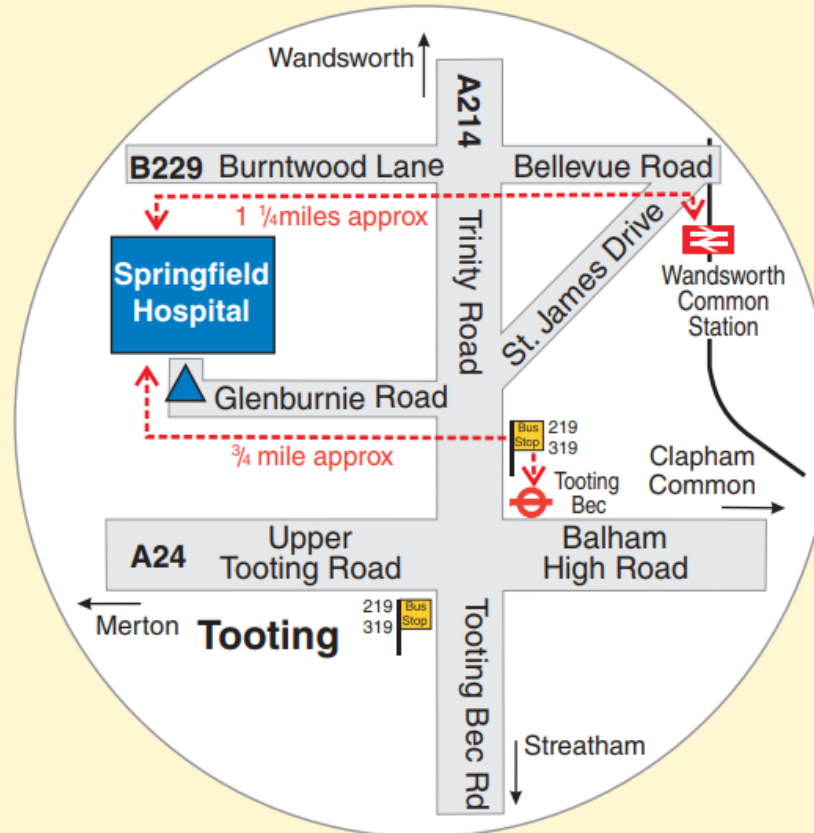

- £3 up to 2 hours
- £5 up to 4 hours
- £10 up to 12 hours
- No return permitted within 2 hours

Please see the map below, which also displays car parks that are currently open. Pay and display machines are typically located at the back of the car parks.
